ORDER DENYING DEFENDANTS'
MOTION IN LIMINE REGARDING REDUNDANT OR UNTIMELY
DISCLOSED EXPERTS

This matter comes before the Court on “Defendants’ Motion in Limine on Redundant or Untimely Disclosed Experts.” Dkt. # 320. Defendants seek an order prohibiting the presentation of “excessive” or untimely disclosed expert testimony. In their motion, defendants provide no evidence, record citations, or specific factual allegations that could support a finding that plaintiff failed to disclose a particular expert’s opinion in a timely manner or that the presentation of such opinions at trial would be redundant.

For all of the foregoing reasons, defendants’ motion to regarding redundant or untimely disclosed experts is DENIED.
